

Please do not weaken the telephone privacy act. It is very annoying to unwanted call from vendors who do not value our time or privacy. With small children it is difficult to get them back to sleep when awoken by a ring phone. Thanks